

A DEVOTIONAL FROM IFCA

The Anchor of the Soul

Promises, promises, promises.... How many are made and how many are broken? Many times we find it hard to keep our promises, but we have a God who always keeps His promises. His Word endures forever (Isaiah 40:8), and He magnifies His Word even above His name (Psalm 138:2). In an insecure world the believer in Jesus Christ has a real anchor of the soul:

The believer has the security to “cease from his own works” (Hebrews 4:10).

The believer has the security of an “anchor of the soul, sure and steadfast” (Hebrews 6:19).

The believer has the security of “eternal salvation” (Hebrews 5:9).

The believer has the security of an “intercessor” that is able to “save to the uttermost (completely)” (Hebrews 7:25).

These are great promises from the God who cannot lie (Hebrews 6:18). The only condition in claiming these blessed promises is for us to trust in the historic Jesus Christ, the Son of God, who was crucified and raised again for our sins. That is, asking the alive and risen Lord Jesus to be our Savior. If you have done just that, why not go back and ask Him to help you live within the reality of your eternal position? He also promises to help each of us to do this (Hebrews 2:17–18).

Prayer: “Lord Jesus, I thank you for each of these promises. Thank you especially for dying on the cross for my sins. Please forgive me of my sins and come into my life, as you have promised you would. I now accept you as my Lord and Savior. Amen.”
