

The Good Samaritan Part II - Luke 10:25-37

I. A Parable to Teach a Spiritual Lesson (30-35)

A. The Ambush and the Attack

“A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among robbers, and they stripped him and beat him, and went away leaving him half dead.”

B. The Recognition and the Refusal

“And by chance a priest was going down on that road, and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. Likewise a Levite also, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side.”

I. A Parable to Teach a Spiritual Lesson (30-35)

A. The Ambush and the Attack

“A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among robbers, and they stripped him and beat him, and went away leaving him half dead.”

B. The Recognition and the Refusal

“And by chance a priest was going down on that road, and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. Likewise a Levite also, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side.”

C. The Compassion and the Care

“But a Samaritan, who was on a journey, came upon him; and when he saw him, he felt compassion, and came to him and bandaged up his wounds, pouring oil and wine on them; and he put him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn and took care of him. On the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper and said, ‘Take care of him; and whatever more you spend, when I return I will repay you’.”

II. The Question to Convict the Self-Righteous Heart (36-37a)

“Which of these three do you think proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell into the robbers’ hands? And he said, ‘The one who showed mercy toward him.’”

III. The Command to Apply the Lesson Learned (37b)

“Then Jesus said to him, ‘Go and do the same.’”

- A. James 1:22
- B. 1 John 3:17-18
